

Here's the next installment of the NAIOP Member spotlight!

Member Spotlight

Patti Clarke

Vice President/Private Banker
Summit Bank NA

NAIOP NW FL: Board Member, Membership Chair

It all started when Mr. Jim Reeves invited me to a meeting. Within a few minutes I was - not just buying - but selling tickets to a PAC fundraiser! I quickly realized that...

Do you have any hobbies?

I love to fish!

What is your guilty pleasure?

Going to Hockey Games, WWE Wrestling and monster truck events with my son Michael.

What is your dream vacation spot?

Fiji Islands

What are you passionate about?

Family

If Hollywood made a movie of your life, who would you want to see play you?

Meg Ryan - prior to plastic surgery!

Why did you to join NAIOP of NWFL?

It all started when Mr. Jim Reeves invited me to a meeting. Within a few minutes I was - not just buying - but selling tickets to a PAC fundraiser! I quickly realized that NAIOP provides the opportunity to meet local experts in the commercial development and real estate field. Participation in the organization helps both my career and my goal to be a better steward in the community.

Achievements:

As a former executive board member for the Catoosa Chamber of Commerce, she served as chairperson for their Communications Committee and Web Site Task Force. In 2007 Patti was named Sertoman of the Year. She is currently a member of Pensacola's Impact 100 and serves as Membership Chair for NAIOP of Northwest Florida.

Biography:

After relocating to Pensacola from Tulsa in April of 2008, Patti joined Summit Bank in September 2009 and has more than 25 years of banking experience including: Commercial Lending, Branch Management, and Internal Audit at a Senior Officer Level. Before joining Summit Bank, Patti managed the start-up, day-to-day operations, and business development for a $185-million-dollar community bank in Tulsa, Oklahoma.